SPORTS FACILITIES

Fans and non-fans alike will appreciate the special environment that the Northwest's sports venues provide for meetings and events. Accustomed to handling large crowds, these facilities offer all the services and support that planners require combined with interesting spaces for gatherings. Meeting guests are thrilled by the aura of major sporting events they experience when they visit the stadium. These facilities are especially attractive during the off-season when more space options are available. Give your meeting or event attendees a special thrill at your next gathering when you hold it at one of these exciting options.

BREWERIES AND BREW PUBS

In a region famous for beverages, the local brewing scene stands out. Breweries and brew pubs provide a relaxed atmosphere and attentive staff, and they make any gathering a special occasion. Breweries often tell a unique story, not only through the local ingredients but also through the distinctive spaces in which they are located. With more than 700 breweries across the region, many that have private event spaces, you have an abundance of fine options. Here is a selection of venues that offer a glimpse into the region's rich history, interesting locations and excellent food and beverage.
